

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Sam Woods is better this morning.

Don't forget the Marquardt concert to-night.

The band will play at Emma Square this afternoon.

No important action in the two Houses of the Legislature.

The Kams and the Unknowns play ball this afternoon. Betting even.

Wilder Cherry Phosphate can be had free by adults at Benson, Smith & Co.

Seats for the Marquardt concert can be secured at Hobron's drug store.

James Campbell has disposed of his interest in Lahaina Sugar Plantation.

Mr. Joseph Cook, the friend of A. F. Judd, will do some more talking to-morrow.

The best work done by the police force for some time is the training for a boat race.

Ladies' Shirt Waists, a new lot just opened, only $1 each at N. S. Sachs, 520 Fort street.

The training on the race track will be in full operation to-morrow. Go and see your choice early.

Sequah will leave next Tuesday for the other islands and explain to the aborigines the value of his medicine.

T. Krouse is once more proprietor of the Eagle House, the late management having failed to come up to time.

The Time is out this morning and contains lots of good reading matter. A fuller review will appear next issue.

The chaperone of that interesting young excursion party didn't go. It will probably "go" without a chaperone.

Last night the House of Representatives held its first night session from 7 to 11 o'clock. The Land Bill passed all its stages.

Willie Greig is slightly improved. The Queen's Hospital management is doing all in its power to ameliorate the condition of the boy.

There are at present more tennis, lacrosse, and other ball clubs, in Honolulu than in any city of similar size, and all vigorously practicing.

The Oahu Railway Co. will dispatch a train to Waianae on the Fourth of July. The first train will leave Honolulu at 8:45 a. m. A second train will be dispatched at 1:45 p. m. The trains will return respectively at 12:55 and 5:55. Tickets for the round trip are $1.50.

The household furniture belonging to Mrs. C. O. Berger will be sold at public auction by J. F. Morgan on July 3d, at 10 a. m. The furniture will be placed for public inspection on July 2d. A fine chance is offered to people intending to furnish house.

Ready to Die.

The telephone rang and a merchant rather interested in Standard Oil and Washington embassies was summoned to the Police Station. With unparalleled heroism and fortitude he buckled on his cartridge belt, unlocked his deadly revolver, shouldered his never erring rifle and went forth to the headquarters of Marshal Hitchcock. There, the ready-to-become-a-hero, learned that he was simply wanted to bail out a common drunk. The leading merchant, guns, pistol, cartridges, courage and all, returned disgusted to his store and raised the price of oil. Alas! we have to buy it.

The Liberty of Bolt's and Bars.

They are having lots of trouble in Hawaii, but we don't believe Thurston favors a monarchy with Kailani at the head of it. Still, it is a good idea to find out whether a nation is fitted for freedom before conferring upon it an independence that to a large portion of it is a total stranger. The freedom that exists in the islands now has put about half the population in jail.—The Judge, June 15, 1895.

The Races.

The public should join the Jockey Club in its endeavors to secure a good day's sport at the race track on the Fourth of July. It is discouraging to the club as well as to the owners of race horses to see their efforts received indifferently by the public. Merchants in Honolulu have subscribed a purse but the public generally ought to show an appreciation of the horses and work exhibited by going in full force to the track and there patronizing the crowning events of the day.

The races will begin at 1 p. m. There are not going to be any bicycle races as they simply try the patience of the public. The Jockey Club is in for horse races this time and does not propose to run any side shows.

The 3 mile dash is the event of the day. Everybody likes to bet on either Amarino or Lord Brock and yet nobody seems to "dare"—Billy C., is back from Maui and will be entered in the 3 mile dash against Autonomy. There was some lively betting on that race this morning. Both horses are favorites.

The trotting races are going to be highly interesting and the afternoon sports are deserving of the unanimous support of those people who prefer a good looking horse to a bicycle or a Fourth of July oration.
